

How to Pull Your Credit Report and Save it as a PDF

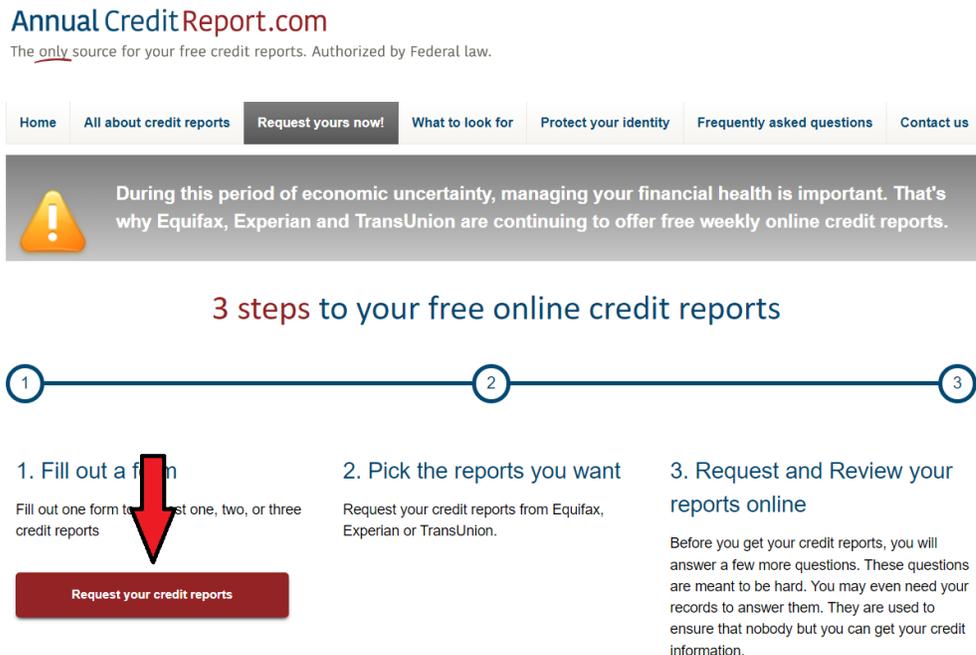

You will need to use a computer to get your credit report. You cannot use your phone to get a good copy.

Step 1: Go to annualcreditreport.com.

Step 2: Click on this button:

Step 3: Click on this button:

Step 4: Fill out form with your information.

Step 5: Click on this button:

Step 5: Select all three bureaus by checking the boxes like this:

Request 1, 2, or 3 reports

Step 2 of 3

Step 6: Click on the next button.

Step 7: Answer the security questions. You may not be able to access all three reports. That is normal. Once you get into a report, go to Step 8.

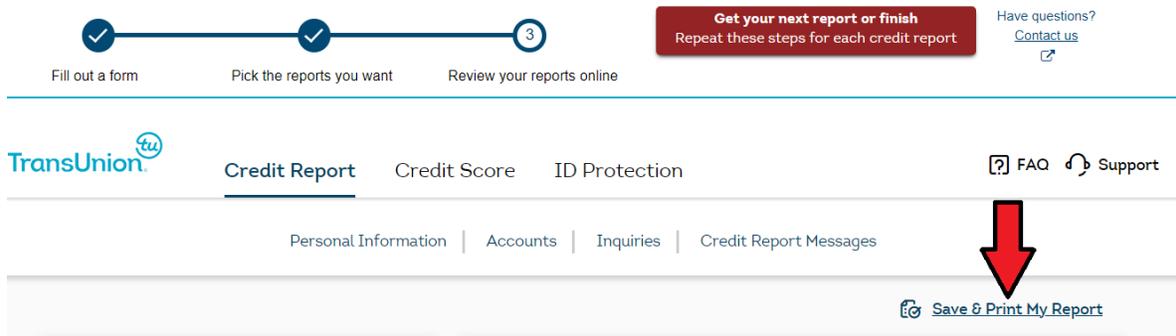

Now you will have a different Step 8 for each of the three bureaus.

Step 8: For Equifax, click the download report button.

The screenshot shows the Equifax website interface. At the top, there is a progress bar with three steps: 'Fill out a form', 'Pick the reports you want', and 'Review your reports online'. The third step is currently active. To the right of the progress bar is a red button labeled 'Get your next report or finish' and a link 'Have questions? Contact us'. Below the progress bar is the Equifax logo. The main content area is titled 'YOUR CREDIT REPORT' and 'Your Equifax credit report'. It shows the report date as 'As of June 6, 2023'. A red arrow points to a blue 'Print Credit Report' button. Below this, the 'Summary' section is visible, with 'Revolving Accounts' listed on the left and 'Summary' centered.

Your Equifax report should download to your computer.
Check your downloads directory.

Step 8: For TransUnion, click the Save & Print My Report.

Step 9: Save it as a PDF

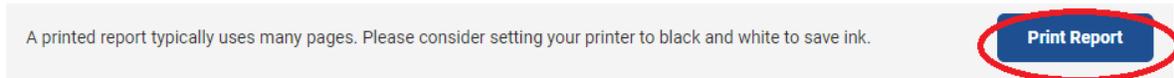

Step 10: Save the file.

Step 8: For Experian, click the Print Your Report link.

Step 8b: After clicking the Print Your Report link, a new window will open. Click the Print Report button.

Step 8c: After clicking the Print Report button, a new window will open. Click “Adobe PDF” or “Save as PDF” under “Destination”. Then click “Print”.
